A full line of the Stocks at 125c.; FANCY BROGADIS at 125c.; FLANNEL SUITINGS at 165c.; Science ASHMERES in all shades, at 25c.; Science ASHMERES in all shades, at 25c.; All shades of VELVETEENs at 375c.; All shades of VELVETEENs at 16c.; Extra low prices in BLACK SILKS and SILK

VELVETS:

10 more pieces of LUBIN'S BLACK CASHMERE, all wood, at 35c.;
A band-come line of BLACK CASHMERES, all widths and pieces.
UNDERSHIRTS!
UNDERSHIRTS!

An exchange wants to know why "we

SHIRTS are sold in the same proportion:
500 dozen 9-ELASTIC REGULAR-MADE LADIES FLEECE-LINED GLOVES at the small price of 10c, worth 25c.; price of 10c, worth 25c.;

price of 10c, worth 25c.;

Special attention is called to our gigantic assortment of CLOAMS, DOLMANS, NEW MARKETS, JACKETS, ILSTERS, &c., at prices that will astenish the closest buvers.

For reliable goods at lowest prices call at LEVI HEXTER'S, no 4-Su.Tu&ThtDe30 307 Broad street.

no 4-Su,Tu&ThtDe30

CARDOZO, ALSOP, MOSBY & CO.

we can with pride and great confidence invite an inspection of same. In our DRESS-GOODS AND SILK DEPARTMENTS we have everything new and desirable in all the styles and colorings introduced this season, including a besutiful assortment of NOVELTIES in BROCADE SILKS AND VELVETS in Ottoman CLOAK DEPARTMENT is enusually attractive, our display being thus more VARIED AND ELEGANT than we have ever shown before, and the PRICES ARE LOWER.

RUSSIAN AND SHER CIRCULARS in Ottoman are unusually cheap this season by reason of an ction very cheap, and offer real bargains from their audience. $2 up to $15 a pair. We have enlarged our GENTS FURNISHING DEPARTMENT, mest stock of SUITS and PANTS GOODS ing advantage. We are making a special offer of BLACK SILKS

[oc 14-cod2m] GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS.

HEADQUARTERS

FOR PERFECT-FITTING SHIRTS. WARM UNDERWEAR.

ALL KINDS GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHINGS. CORNER NINTH AND MAIN STREETS.

H. T. MILLER & CO.,

FINE DRESS-SHIRTS TO ORDER A SPE-

CIALTY. FIT GUARANTEED.

Manufacturers.

ALSO, FINE RED AND WHITE SHAKER SHIRTS

AND DRAWERS. Goods thoroughly shrunk before being out.

A large stock of

NECK-WEAR, COLLARS, CUFFS,

HANDKERCHIEFS, HOSIERY,

SUSPENDERS, &c., &c.

H. T. MILLER & CO'S.

GROCERIES, LIQUORS, &c.

CALT, SALT, SALT, SALT. 8.500 SACKS
ENGLISH FACTORY-FILLED, "DEAKIN'S'
BRAND, landing at Newport's News from steam slip Nublan, direct from Liverpool.
For sale by DAVENPORT & MORRIS,
to 1-71 Dock street.

JASPER'S FINE (WHITE) TABLEand the "ENTIRE-WHEAT" FLOUR, which is good for dyapepiles, and also makes excellent cakes for breakfast, can be had at MCCARTHY & HAYNES'S, oc 19 MCCARTHY & HAYNES'S,

FOR BREAKFAST:

NEW BUCKWHEAT,

GILT-EDGE GOSHEN BUTTER, BOSTON MESS MACKEREL,

CHRISTIAN & WHITE'S.

350 hogsheads PORTO-RICO MOLASSES; 100 hogsheads EXTRA HEAVY SYRUP;

100 barrels NEW ORLEANS MOLASSES. POTTS, STOKES & CO.

LIME, CEMENT, &c.

BARRELS FRESH ROCK 2,300 BARRELS FRESH ROSAGE COMPARISON OF THE STREET STREET

5,000 BARRELS FRESH ROCK-Crockett kilns. Schooner Jenoie G. Pilisbury Just arrived. Schooner Ads Ames daily expected. For sale low from vessel.

WARNER MOORE.

Lime, Cement, Lump and Ground Plaster, foot of Seventeenth street, south side of Dook.

DAILY DISPATCH.

VOL. LXIV.

Bichmond Dispatch.

SUNDAY ...... NOVEMBER 4, 1883.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE DISPATCH IS LARGER THAN THE COMBINED CIRCU-LATION OF ALL THE OTHER DAILY NEWS-PAPERS OF THE CITY.

[Entered at the Post-office at Richmond, Va., as second-class matter.

We rise to remark that Coalition must disintegrate. BOB INGERSOLL is still trying to prove

Your uncle David Davis predicts a Democratic victory next year. It is wonderful how domestic discipline clears the vision.

lectures on civil rights.

The Atlanta Constitution says "CHARLEY

Mr. BEECHER says: "You might as well put a provision into the Constitution against total depravity as against the manufacture and sale of liquor." Mr. BEECHER ought to be authority on total depravity.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Republicans should brace themselves for next week's shock. We learn that it will be quite severe in this section of North America." And in this section too.

A western exchange says: "Someody suggests 'road lay' as a rhyme for HOADLY." It won't do. The Republicans printing was known in China 400 years be- little of it suital tried the "road lay" for years, but HOADLY China was, he said, of a very high order, ing and export. knecked it out of time.

The Mexican Libertad says: "The dis- life. The Chinese are "Agnostics." ease known as Yankeefobia is spreading in greatest moral teacher taught them to lie, the republic with incredible rapidity." Wonder how many young women have been mysteriously murdered in Mexico re-

The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette says: "Possibly the Sultan may be persuaded to stump Indiana for General Lew Wallace | torious deeds. Mr. Painter spoke very senwhen he returns to run the State." It will effects, PLUSH GARMENTS in great variety of take something stronger than old Porte to styles, and JERSEY CLOTH JACKETS—the best-bulk WALLACE through.

"Several towns in the wicked West SSS have refused to let a Jesse James combination play in their limits." Perhaps the BER LILLA AN NNK KEEE T SSS people are afraid the performance might of Christ. Dr. Wilson alluded feelingly to people are afraid the performance might of Christ. Dr. Wilson alluded feelingly to his call to labor as a missionary in Africa, in which land he labored for twenty years. people are afraid the performance might

The Commercial Advertiser says Frank HATTON has the advantage of CHARLES HANDKERCHIEFS, NECKWEAR, and UN-Just so. That is exactly what Mr. SMITH DERWEAR is very handsome and complete.

In our CASSIMENE STOCK we now show the complained of FRANK's dexterity in tak-

The National Republican says it sympaof which, for the price, cannot be equalled in the state; also, a lot of EVENING SILKS at a great to find cuss words for the New York Democrats," If the Republican cannot do jus-tice to its feelings now, what a terrible ander, of Union Theological Seminary.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican and the Providence (R. I.) Journal rejoice in the conviction of the alleged Georgia kuklux as evidence of a creditable adminis tration of justice in that State. We wish we could say the same regarding the administration of justice in New England in general, and Connecticut in particular.

A Frenchman who blew his brains out in a Paris restaurant left this note: " Polities are demoralizing; that is why I do this." If all the demoralized Virginia politicians seek consolation after the manner of the Frenchman what a swarm of coroners there will be around the various Coalition headquarters about next Wednes-

The Winnsboro' (Ga.) News is not pre pared to "believe that sensible southern congressmen will vote in the Democratic caucus for RANDALL when JOHN C. CAR-LISLE, of Kentucky, is a candidate for the position in question." The News seems to have a very confused idea as to what constitutes a sensible southern congress-

The Peoria (III.) Transcript is very much exercised over the "Georgia plan of pensioning Confederate soldiers," which it declares " is unconstitutional and a queer way of wiping out the memories of the war." This alarm is altogether unnecessary. Even were another war probable, no one would hurt so small a thing as the Trans

An exchange says that Victor, a son of BILL ARP, the southern humorist, is "doing good local work on that tearing-down Republican paper the New York Tribune." If Victor happens to be in sympathy politically with the Tribune, he will probably appreciate these lines about the 7th of November:

" The 'Arp that once through Tearer's halls The soul of music shed.

Now hangs as mute on Tearer's walls

As if that soul had fled."

A woman keeping a candy shop close by one of the public schools in New York city obtaining prizes. The woman had with her a large demon's head, with a red flanner a targe demon's nead, with a red dan-nel mouth constructed like a pocket. She said that the only game she had was this, and that the children got prizes when they threw balls into the mouth. The woman escaped with a reprimand and a warning that if arrested again she would be committed for keeping a gambling-house.

If you would not have your children grow up in ignorance kill the hydra-headed monster Coalition at the polls on Tues-

Tait, an aged cripple, has been arrested sation of the interesting couple turned in he stated. Mr. Daly gave up the game he stated. Mr. Daly gave up the game a charge of polsing his young a very different direction. The Duke wife, whose maiden name was Rossannah learned, to his horror and anger, that his Leppard, with strychnine. It is said that daughter had dared to betroth herself to the just previous to marrying her a month ago. Doet, As a matter of course, he refused in the stated. Mr. Daly gave up the game he stated. M The case has been adjourned two weeks,

RICHMOND, VA., SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1883---SUPPLEMENT.

RELIGIOUS.

Synod of Virginia.

FOURTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS—DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONS. [Reported for the Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, November 2, 1883. Synod met at 9:30, and after devotional ham, criticised some of its statements, Rev. W. E. Baker, of Staunton, held that Bob Ingersoll is still trying to prove the aggressiveness of the ministers was that he is as good as a negro by delivering crippled by inadequate support. A carriage-driver in New York gets better pay. he said, than many of our preachers in Virginia. Rev. E. C. Gordon, of Salem, and Dr. McIlwaine, of Hampden-Sydney, followed in the same line. The Presbytery of Lexington had guaranteed $700 salary to every preacher who gives his whole time to the work of the ministry. Rev. J. C. Carson, of Bristol, urged a recently ordained missionary to China. He favored, he said, the idea of foreign missionary to China, Rev. G. W. Painter, missionary to China, followed. China is, he said, the great stronghold of heathen-tism. It has great agricultural wealth. Its mineral resources are undeveloped. The Government was reviewed and the political divisions pointed out. Mr. Painter opposed any legislation hostile to China. He reviewed Chinese history, go-ting back to the time of Abraham. The present code of laws is, he said, 2,000 years old, and commands the respect of

but it was destitute of any real religious sentiment and knows nothing of a future and they do it to perfection. They are practically godless. They know nothing of heaven and hell, and yet they fear the hereafter. Ancestral worship is their re-ligion. Their ethical systems teach charity, but the practice is almost unknown. They weigh and measure their sins, and then at-tempt to balance accounts by doing merisibly, and deeply interested the audience.

Dr. Leighton Wilson, of Baltimore, sec retary for foreign missions, spoke. He is over seventy years old, but his voice is well modulated, and he is easily heard. The foreign mission work was not, he de clared, a waste of our means. It was like the alabaster box of ointment which a an broke and emptied upon the head

Rev. John A. Preston was called upon lead the Synod in prayer for God's Woods, who is to go to China.

The report of the Committee on Narratives of the State of Religion in the Bounds plight it will be in about the middle of next raging; but called attention to the little importance which too many churches attach to the prayer-meetings. Some twenty-one churches reported revivals. The great need of more preachers was empha-sized. Not much has been done among the colored people, and there is said to be little encouragement to work among them. Altogether too little attention was paid to family worship, but it is believed that some of the Presbyterians were improving in this direction. Some criticism was made of the disouraging view of the report as to the matter of work among the colored people, pending which the hour for adjournment arrived. Installation Service at West Point. On Friday night Rev. J. H. Newbill, the new pastor of the Baptist church at West Point, was very pleasantly introduced to his charge with appropriate services, which Rev. Drs. Pollard. Landrum, and J.

William Jones, of Richmond; Rev. Alfred Bagby, of King and Queen, and Rev. John
W. Ryland, of Middlesex, participated.
Dr. J. William Jones, the late pastor of

The President has, throug
ment of State, presented a high the church, presided and directed the ex-

Rev. Alfred Bagby, who organized the church, and was its first pastor, made fervent and appropriate prayer. Rev. W. W. Landrum preached an able and effective sermon. Rev. Dr. John Pollard made in every way admirable address to the new

Mr. Newbill responded in a feeling and appropriate manner, expressing his pur-pose of endeavoring by God's blessing to follow the wise counsel which had been given him, and asking for the sympathy, prayers, and the cooperation of the

Dr. Jones made the address to the constant, active cooperation. deeply interested in the exercises, and tion." nounced by Rev. J. W. Ryland, many of them came forward, and there was a general introduction and handshaking.

Mr. Newbill enters upon his work at West Point under very flattering auspices, and there is every promise that his pulpit power and pastoral ability will enable him to achieve there large success.

Richmond, the stronghold of Conservative-Democracy, is the goal above all others order to humiliate her people.

Romance in Real Life.

just previous to marrying her a month ago poet. As a matter of course, he refused to Tait insured her life for a large amount.

The case has been adjourned two weeks, upon the lovers took the train to Florence, the revenue spies and informers.

where they were made man and wife. This last step made the Duke so indignant that he had a legal document drawn up, by which he disinherited his daughter; but the father and the man afterwards so far overcame the aristocrat in him that he setthed upon her for life a yearly income of 6,000 lire. The story has since obtained an almost tragical completeness by the separaexercises and reading and correcting the minutes, the question of the place for the next meeting of Synod came up.

The churches in Lexington, Wytheville, lovers to hold interviews after the father Fredericksburg, and Lewisburg all send invitations, and, after a lively debate, Wytheville was selected.

The report on home missions came up, and Rev. Samuel Watkins, of Rocking-that the will henceforth live and die as if he had prohibited all further intercourse between the two. He has consequently broken up his household in Rome, made a settlement upon his duchess, and declared that he will henceforth live and die as if he had prich a settlement.

Look out for Coxlition tissue ballots.

had neither wife nor child.

present code of laws is, he said, 2,000 present code of laws is, he said, 2,000 It is learned from planters and manuvears old, and commands the respect of facturers that while the tobacco erop in learned European jurists. The art of this section is shorter than usual, and very this section is shorter than usual, and very little of it suitable for shipping, it is yet the best crop made since the war for work-

In and export.

The Consolidated Railway Express Company's business and franchises were this morning, under the terms of the sale, formally turned over to the Southern Express Company, and their office in the Norfolk and Western depot building was closed. The terms of the sale have not yet been made public. A letter received been made public. A letter received been grown President Kimball states that the list at half-past 6 o'clock in the evening; on the 31st he sets after 9 o'clock, the occultation continuing fifty-nine minutes. The phenomenon is a morning.

Jupiter is morning star throughout the month. Though he now yields the first place to Saturn, he fills the second with such distinguished grace that, when his such distinguished grace that the convenient at a four minutes after 9 o'clock, the occultation continuing fifty-nine minutes. The phenomenon is a morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the evening; on the 31st he sets after 9 o'clock, the occultation continuing fifty-nine minutes. The phenomenon is a morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the morning.

Jupiter is morning that half-past 6 o'clock in the morning o'clock, the occultation continuing fifty-nine minutes.

Jupiter is morning that half here from President Kimball states that the employes of the Consolidated Express will ail, or nearly all, be retained by the new management. Mr. V. Spalding, the agent of the Southern Express here, has been made general supervisor of the route between Norfolk and Bristol, with full charge of the route and messenger service. His headquarters will be in Lynchburg.

The Bell Telephone Company will restablish an Exchange in this city. The Council last night granted them all the privileges they desire in the way of crect-stars through which Mars passed in Octong poles and running wires. Political feeling is running high to-day. and both parties are completing their final illustration in this beaming planet, for he arrangements for Tuesday's elections. The in which land he labored for twenty years. He organized two churches, educated a good many preachers, and translated portions of the Scriptures into two of the languages of Africa. Dr. Wilson's speech was a plain, earnest statement of his own experiences as a missionary. It was listened to with profound interest.

arrangements for Tuesday's elections. The Democrats had some difficulty in getting at the registration-books in some of the wards and applied to Judge Mann to grant them their rights. He promptly instructed the registrars to open their books for inspection and for such notes as the Democrats desired to obtain. ROBIN ADALE.

blessing upon the young missionary, Mr. | Coalition majorities that may prevail during the day. The fight is not over antil sundown.

Brief News Items.

It is estimated that during the last forty ears 2,250,000 houses have been erected in Great Britain, and they are worth the amount of the national debt. The rate of building now is about 80,000 per year. Forty years ago the rate was 40,000 per

The committee having charge o Bartholdi pedestal fund propose to ask the legislatures of the different States to appropriate $2,000 each for the purpose of eing memorial stones in the pedestal. city clergymen are also requested to give their congregations a chance to contribute to the fund on Thanksgiving-day.

In the Circuit Court for Baltimore county sealed verdict was returned Friday morn ing awarding $5,000 damages to Miss Grace M. Allison against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for the killing of plaintiff's father on the line of defendant's road. Mr. Allison was killed by train at the New York cut-off of the Baltimore and Ohio, and the accident was al-

The President has, through the Depart ment of State, presented a handsome gold medal to John Kilgallon, master of the British bark Eurydice, in recognition of his humanity in rescuing two American sea men of the schooner Wildfire, adrift at sea July 8, 1883. He has also presented a simitar medal to Lorenzo Bonsignor, master of the Italian bark Stella B., for his humane services in picking up four seamen of the ship Matchless, adrift at sea,

July 17, 1883. On October 29th Secretary Folger reeived from a New York bank a communi cation, stating that a large amount of 3 per cent, bonds embraced in the 122d and 12 calls were accumulating there, and asking if the department would redeem $1,000,church, warmly congratulating them on escuring a resident pastor, and so admira-securing a resident pastor, and so admira-ble a one as Mr. Newbill, and exhorting plied: "I have to say that you may present them to give him their warmest sympa- any of the bonds included in those calls the earth, on one side of the sun, and Vethies, their most fervent prayers, and their for payment prior to their maturity, and they will be redeemed and interest allowed The large congregation present seemed thereon up to the date of their presenta-

Insist upon a free ballot and a fair count.

Killing a Deer with Shovels. [Hawkinsville (Ga.) News.]

Mr. John T. Daly, Jr., writes us the particulars of the killing of a deer near Buzzard Roost, in Twiggs county, one day last week, under very singular circumlast week, under very singular circumstances. Mr. Daly is foreman of "Gang No. 3," on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad. On Tuesday of last week Mr. Daly had his gang at work on the being will defined sphere with a perspective of the property of the property of the person of the property of the person has been arrested for running a wheel of fortune and other gambling games to induce the children to risk their pennies, and even their keepsakes, in the hope of an even their keepsakes, in the hope of is no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he would not resort to in its no measure he week Mr. Daly had his gang at work on the week Mr. Daly had his gang at work on the week Mr. Daly had his gang at work on the week Mr. Daly had his Swamp. The dogs started a deer, which restrial ones, and can find little difficulty in left the swamp and took its course toward the railroad. Mr. Daly discovered the deer and decided that it was coming discovered the deer and decided that it was coming discovered the deer and decided that it was coming discovered the deer and decided that it was coming discovered the deer and decided that it was coming discovered the decided that the deci The beautiful and highly cultivated daughter of one of the proud old Roman nobles, the Duke of Gallese, was introduced to the Italian poet, Signor D'Annunzio. Her kinsfolk never dreamed that a lady of such great expectations and high birth could run any risk by an intimate acquaintence with a man risen from the lower. quaintance with a man risen from the lower ranks. The two walked and chatted together, but while the young lady's friends supposed that she was talking of inteller. A Flesherton (Ont.) telegram says: Cook

Tait, an aged cripple, has been arrested

Tait, an aged cripple, has been arrested bere on a charge of relationship of the interesting couple turned in the stated. Mr. Daly gave up the game

Our glorious orb to the Neptunian sky measures 64". a little more than the greatest apparent distance of venus as seen from the earth.

Every Democratic vote is a vote against

PLANETS IN NOVEMBER.

at on Charles with BLACK COUNTRY WEONLES.

A Forecast of the Heavens Some Dots

for Students of Astronomy. [Providence Journal.] SATURN is morning star until the 28th, and then evening star. If we class the planets according to the interest attached to their movements during the month Sa-turn will undouttedly win first place. On the 28th, at II o'clock in the evening. Sa-turn is in opposition with the sun, reach-ing his culminating point in size and bril-liancy for the present year. He is then opposite the sun, rising when the sun sets and setting when the sun rises. This is the earth, thus accounting for the splendor of PETERSBURG.

stead of being 1,014,000,000 miles from the is hard to find in an ordinary telescope. The CITY AND THE UPPER APPONANTOX CAthe earth, his distance at conjunction is NAL—BARNETT JONES BAILED—THE TOBACCO CROP—SALE OF THE CONSOLIDATED EXPRESS, &C.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch...)

NOVEMBER 3, 1883.

At the meeting of the Common Council
st night a resolution was placed and the common Council of the resolution was placed and the common Council
of the resolution was placed and the common Council
of th tion, especially in the line of colportage.
Rev. R. S. Walker, of Augusta, gave an account of evangelical work in Lexington Presbytery. Rev. William E. Hill, of Covington, told of the work in the Presbytery of Greenbrier, where there is one last night a resolution was introduced look- the sun than he is when in aphelion, brings covington, told of the work in the Presbytery of Greenbrier, where there is one Presbyterian preacher to 25,000 people. Hon. J. L. Marye, of Fredericksburg, earnestly argued for greater liberality in supporting the ministry and in all Christian for the control of the city. The horizon nearly the entire night, and need horizon nearly the entire night horizon ne UNDERSHIRTS! UNDERSHIRTS!

An exchange wants to know why "we LADIES, GENTLEMEN'S, AND CHILDREN'S.

LADIES MERINO VESTS at 40c.:

LADIES MERINO VESTS at 50c.:

LADIES MERINO VESTS at 51.25:

LADIES MERINO VESTS at 51.2 Neptune, the planet being a quarter of degree south. On the 15th, at noon-day The discussion was interrupted by the jected within sixty days.

The discussion was interrupted by the jected within sixty days.

Barnett Jones, who was tried this week lovely picture of the ring-girdled planet, order of the day—foreign missions. The first address was by Rev. Henry Woods, recently ordained missionary to China. He favored, he said, the idea of foreign missions was continued until January because five minutes after 8 o'clock in the The right ascension of Saturn is 4h. ning, Washington mean time, and about twenty-four minutes earlier according to Providence time. The emersion, or reagprincely head appears above the eastern hills, star-gazers pay involuntary homage to the noblest member of the sun's family. Observers will now obtain the first glimpse of this planet about half-past 10 o'clock in the evening. As he rises four minutes earlier every evening, being, like stars, carried westward by the earth's motion in her orbit, he will rise about ber. Those who desire to observe a planet in a stationary aspect will find a brilliant scarcely changes his position during the The right ascension of Jupiter is Sh. etic power. 25m., his declination is 19° 35' north, and his diameter is 37" 6.

Jupiter rose on the 1st at half-past 10 o'clock in the evening; on the 30th he rises at half-past 8 o'clock.

Mass is morning star. Though he con-Don't be discouraged by reports of big tributes no incidents to the annals of the Tenerific, 3,000 feet; on the Himalaya month, he wins the third place for the in- 10,000 feet. terest he excites. His increase in size and ruddy color are plainly apparent, for his diameter has more than doubled since the 1st of October. As he rises now twentytwo minutes after Jupiter, he may readily be found from his proximity to his more brilliant brother. Mars illustrates direct motion during the month—that is, he is moving eastward according to the signs of the zodiac.

The right ascension of Mars is 8h. 47m.

diameter is 14" 6. Mars rose on the 1st at ten minutes be-fore 11 o'clock in the evening; on the 30th pensions to the village poor, and educated rises a quarter before 10 o'clock. VENUS is evening star during the month, School,

She will not long remain low on the list, but will soon put forth her claims to notice as the fairest of the winter stars. Though setting now forty minutes after the sun, at the end of the month she will be above the horizon a little more than an for, far south in the constellation Sagittains, two degrees and a half south of the unset point, and she will be both dim and mall in the glowing twilight.

Among the items on the bill of fare at the Madrid banquet in bonor of the anniversary of the discovery of America were rius, two degrees and a half south of the mall in the glowing twilight.

NEPTUNE is morning star until the 12th,

among the planets on the morning roll nus as the sole planetary representative on this month. the other side. The movements of the planets as seen from the sun would be far less complicated than when they earth, who is herself moving. swayed by the same laws that govern the sun's whole family. Neptune at opposi-tion is under the most favorable conditions for being seen.

posite points of the orbit. The sun as seen in the Neptunian sky measures 64", a part of the light we enjoy.

The right ascension of Neptune is 3h.
12m., his declination is 16° north, and his

NO. 108.

o'clock in the evening; on the 30th he sets about half-past 5 o'clock in the morning. Mercury is morning star until the 26th and evening star the rest of the month.

On the 26th, at 1 o'clock in the morning, pearing on his eastern side as evening star. He takes no active part in the events of the

the sun among the planets.

The right ascension of Mercury is 13h.

38m., his declination is 8° 17' south, and the moon is in conjunction with Saturn.

his diameter 5".4.

ning.

Administration of the property

Academy, gave them to the library. The reproduction will be by phototypes

THE DISPATCH

One of the best authorities on Leonardo da Vinci is Venturi, who wrote a treatise on his life and scientific studies. Only be is in superior conjunction with the sun, three copies are known to exist out of passing beyond and below him, and reapanother in the Library of the Royal So-ciety, and a third in the Eastlake Library, month, but speeds on his way, the smallest attached to the National Gallery, in Lonard the swiftest as well as the nearest to don. Mr. Alfred Marks, No. 155 Adelaids Road, London, proposes to issue a reprint of the tract at a moderate price if sufficient subscribers forward him their names

Mercury rose on the 1st about half-past 5 o'clock in the morning; on the 30th he sets about half-past 4 o'clock in the eve-The war over the "Apollo and Mars-yas," rejected as a Raphael by the National Gallery and finally purchased from the heirs of Morris Moore by the Louvre, continues in the Academy and other English weeklies. his appearance. A straight line drawn from the sun to the earth would, if extended, pass through Saturn. Inif extended, pass through Saturn. Inif extended, pass through Saturn. Inif extended, pass through Saturn. Ining in a direct course, though at present sists that it is a Raphael. Mr. Claude Philing in a direct course, though at present sists that it is a Raphael. Mr. Claude Philing in a direct course, though at present sists that it is a Raphael. Mr. Claude Philing in a direct course, though at present sists that it is a Raphael. sists that it is a Raphael. Mr. Claude Philips holds to the belief of Passavant and Morelli that it is from the hand of Timoteo Vite. Mr. Conway lately argued that it was by Perugino, the master of Raphael. At Rome, Minister Barcelli proposes to nnect the excavations about the Forum with those in the adjacent Palatine Hill, thus forming in the centre of Rome a small 44m., his declination is 2° 5' north, and his diameter is 3".5. ancient city sacred to the hobbies of archa-ologists. To complete his design much in-Uranus rose on the 1st a few minutes be-fore 3 o'clock in the morning; on the 30th orporated and private property will have be absorbed by the State-dwellings. workshops, stores, chapels, granaries, manufactories, and churches. Meanwhile ail sorts of antiques are being turned up, and the antiquarians are kept busy defining the century to which each new discovery is to be assigned.

DISFRANCHISED.

LIST OF COLORED MALE ADULTS victed of petit Jarceny in the Police Court of being 1° 2′ south. Observers in some lo-calities in south declination will see Saturn the city of Richmond from December 1, 1876, to October 24, 1883; all of whom are disfranchised unless where political disabilities have been t loved by the Governor:

Allen, Richard
Allen, Charles
Allen, James
Allen, James
Anderson, Robert
Anderson, John
Archer, Madison
Alexander, Cluberne
Anderson, Isatah
Allen, Richard
Bryce, David
Brauch, William
Brown, Winston
Edley, Constantine
Burk, Fred. Sthey, Constant Surk, Fred. Sanks, William Srice, Peter Juffer, William Slack, William Brown, Edward Brown, Oliver Jooker, James dark edge will first overtake the star. Ob-servers will see it apparently blotted from the sky, as it disappears behind the dark portion of the moon's disc. Stalwart Republicanism, with which Coalitionism is allied, is responsible for all the infamous and humiliating measures that have been fastened on the white people of Virginia since the close of the war, Foreign Facts and Fancies. Brooks, Kossuit Brown, Edward Burkley, Thomas There was recently found in Italy a tra-gedy which the Italian poet Leopardi composed in his fourteenth year. It is entitled "Pompejus," and it will shortly be printed. Persons who have seen it declare that

The altitudes at which vine-culture ceases in different countries are said to b the following: In Wurtemberg at 1,000 to 1,500 feet; in Switzerland and the Tyrol, 1,700 feet; on the southern slope of the Alps, 2,000 feet; in Sicily, 3,000 feet; in ntains passages which show great po-

Herr Friedmann, celebrated in western Europe as the Rabbi of Sadagora, is dead, and wide and general is the regret among orthodox Jews, His name was alway the utmost veneration, and is said to have exercised a charm in many lands besides

At the favorite Russian residence of Turgenieff, Sparskee, the novelist maintained a home for aged women, an infant school, and a free dispensary, peasant boy in the Moscow Agricultural

From Berlin it is telegraphed to one of the London newspapers that previous to the appointment of King Alfonso to the been decided to transfer the regiment to another garrison. After the demonstration gainst the King in Paris the decision was immediately revoked.

The right ascension of Venus is 15h, 9m., the following: Soup—Isabel the Catholic and American soup; fish from the port of liameter is 10".2.

Palos, from which Columbus set sail on his tiameter is 10" 2.

Venus set on the 1st about half-past 5 first voyage; loin a l'Admiral, Castilian o'clock in the evening; on the 30th she partridge, Andes pheasants, Jamaica sets about half-past 5 o'clock. punch, roasted Brizilian peacock, Hayana sweetbread, New York ices, Granada fruit, when he becomes evening star. He re- and Porto Rico coffee. The sarcophagus designed for the retains his preëminence until that time nong the planets on the morning roll mains of Harvey, and to be placed in the first to make his appearance in the Hempstead church, has a bottom base eight field. On the 12th, at 4 o'clock in the morning, the event in his career most in-molding supporting the block that contains teresting to terrestrial observers takes place. He is in opposition with the sun. The block is panelled on all sides. On the As the word implies, he is opposite the sun, being 180° in longitude from him, and also at his nearest point to the earth.

An observer on the sun endowed with

"The remains of William Harvey, the disvisual power to take in the system at a coverer of the circulation of the blood, glance would behold the earth, and Nep-tune far beyond directly in line. He would by the Royal College of Physicians of Lonalso find, just before Neptune's opposi-tion, six of the seven planets, leaving out fortnight ago that the remains should be placed in this sarcoplagus on the 18th of > Beware of attempts to vote dead men and convicts. The Coalitionists are desperate.

Art and Artists.

Ludwig Richter, the man who draws German scenes, German peasants, and pictures for farry stories as nobody else can, is eighty years old.

The Humane Society of London is about to make a new medal, to be conferred on persons who have saved human lives, tak-ing the scene of Mr. Millais's "The Res-The widow of Paul de Musset has left

160,000 francs to the municipality for the purpose of creeting a monument in white marble to Alfred and Paul de Musset, and founding a three-year annuity for meritorious sculptors who need assistance. There are now seven pictures by Meis-

Charles August Arnaud, the author of the two bas-reliefs of the Pont de l'Alma. He died in a railway train when returning from a watering-place with his wife and two children. He was born in 1825.

Au illustrated Russian paper will publish a selection from the eighty-eight Greuze drawings lately found in the library of the Academy of Fine Arts at St. Petersburg. They have been forgotten since 1817, when Neptune rose on the 1st at half-past 5 Count Stroganoff, then president of the Jones, William H.
Jones, Jim
Jones, Samuel
Johnson, William
Jones, Ben.
Jonson, Samuel
Johnson, William H.
Jones, Beverly
Jones, William H.
Johnson, Tauk
Johnson, Frauk
Johnson, H.
Kander
Jones, Cary Johnson, Alexande Jones, Cary Jefferson, William Jackson, Monroe Kellem, Charles Lewis, Henry Lightfeot, Henry Lee, Edward Lewis, Matt Lee, Dudley Lee, Abraham Lee, Ben, Lewis, Henry Lewis, Henry Lewis, Matt Landrum, William Lewis, Winston Lee, Wilsiam Lewis, Winston Lee, William H. as, Morton an, Willian Nelson, John Nelson, Page Parrish, William Page, Robert Pleasants, Ross Payne, Fleming Page, Minor Pleasants, Robert Victor, August

Cooper, Simon Clarke, Thomas Carler, William Collius, Edward Coleman, John Chambers, Robe Cowen, Martin

Davis, George
Dickinson, Moses
Davis, Lucian
Dorsey, William
Dorsey, James
Dabrey, Wilson
Dillard, Joseph
Daveuport, Matthes
Evans, Richard
Edmonds, Wash,
Edwards, William
Epps, William
Epps, William
Epps, William
Epps, William
Epps, James Snead, John Simpson, Richard Smith, Shadrick Shelden, Mead Shines, Wilham Sager, Thomas Slater, Sandy Scott, Morris Scott, Morris
Savage, Sutherland
Smith, Henry
Swan, James
Smith, Moses
Smith, George
Swaun, Thomas
Scott, Lewis
Smith, Moses
Sydnor, Israel
Smith, Hen
Street, Jacob
Smith, Lewis
Spurlock, William H.
Thompson, Frank seming, Richard Fagan, James Green, Jack Gilliam, Jonas Grein, Jonas

mas, Peyton mas, Edward rabb, John frent, Arthur fucker, Isham tompkins, James temore, John empleman, James &

Hilb. Richard
Hicks. William
Hamilton, James
Harrison, Samuel
Hill, Ruffin
Holmes, William
Henderson, David
Harris, George
Harris, Hartman
Hunter, Charles
Hoyle, Douglas
Hughes, Eichard
Hinnter, Modiague
Hartman, John
Henderson, Wm. Henry allos William
Harris, William
Harris, William
Harris, William
Harris, William
Harris, William
Harris, William
Johnson,
Holmes, William
Johnson, Stephen
Jones, Roser
Jones, Edward
Johnson, Richard
Johnson, Richard
Johnson, Richard
Johnson, Willis
Johnson, Willis
Johnson, Willis
Johnson, Willis
Johnson, Willis
Johnson, Willis
Johnson, George Vauchan, Henderson Williams, Bill Jordon, Robert
Jenkins, Milo
Johnson, W. M., H.
Johnson, R. J.
Jenkins, Henry
Jordan, Anderson
Jorkins, William
Jenkrason, William
Jenkrason, William
Johnson, Henry
Johnson, Abram
Jones, Albert
Jackson, Sydney
Johnson, Hoebert
Jefferson, John
Jackson, John
Jackson, John
Jackson, John

Watson, John Watson, Alexander Wilson, Alexa Wilson, Alexa Washington, James Washington, Jerry Woodson, Robert Washington, Charle Williams, Frank Williams, Frank Williams, Frank Williams, Alfred Wyatt, John H. Wells, Joseph

of ne

ackson, John lones, Frank